

REMARKS

This Amendment is in response to the Final Action of January 9, 2007 in which claims 20-23 were objected to because of certain informalities and rejected as being unpatentably obvious based on Jobst et al, previously cited, and a new reference Hurst et al (US 2003/0224823).

Regarding the claim objections, claim 20 has been amended to show the separate paragraphs required by the Examiner. Similarly, claim 22 has been amended to change the preamble as suggested by the Examiner. Withdrawal of the objection is requested.

Regarding the obviousness rejection of claims 20-23, please note that the Jobst et al reference constitutes subject matter which qualifies as prior art only under one or more of subsections (e), (f) and (g) of Section 102 of Title 35 and it therefore shall not preclude patentability according to 35 U.S.C. Section 103(c) because the subject matter of Jobst et al and the presently claimed invention were, at the time the present invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person, i.e., Nokia Corporation.

Therefore, there is no need to discuss the merits of the rejection.

Withdrawal of the U.S.C. Section 103(a) rejection of claims 20-23 is requested.

Regarding the Information Disclosure Statement filed June 23, 2006, the Examiner has not acknowledged receipt thereof and has not indicated consideration of the reference cited on the Form PTO-1449 (GB 2 340 344). It is requested that the Examiner supply a copy of the IDS form PTO-1449 with his initials in his response to the present amendment.

The objections and rejections of the Office Action of January 9, 2007, having been obviated by amendment or shown to be inapplicable, withdrawal thereof is requested and passage of claims 20-23 to issue is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
